

2018 CII SUMMER MEETING

July 15-17, 2018 | Guadalajara, Jal., Mexico

Esteemed international colleagues,

Register today and join us for the 2018 CII Summer Meeting in Guadalajara, Mexico on July 15-17. The University of Guadalajara and APLU have put together a program that addresses important and timely international and global issues, provides a rich display of local culture and offers a great chance to network with your North American colleagues in Mexico's second largest city. Guadalajara is known as the land of tequila and mariachi. It is rich in history and traditions and yet is also known as the Mexican Silicon Valley, a wonderful blend of the past and the future of Mexico.

We are honored to host our summer meeting in Mexico, and we hope to have as many of our APLU-Mexican-member institutions represented as possible. This is a great opportunity to network with APLU-U.S.-member institutions.

So please sign up and contribute your perspectives and learn from others in a truly international setting.

We have regular registration rates until Friday, June 29th. We are offering a special registration price for the first ten registrations. Please use the code "50offReg" at check-out. The hotel is still accepting reservations. Get in quick before the reduced room rate goes up! Contact information for the hotel is Hotel RIU Plaza Guadalajara, Av. Adolfo Lopez Mateos, Sur 830 - Fracc. Chapalita, Guadalajara, Jal 44500, Mexico. +52 (33) 38 80 75 00.

For more information regarding this event and to take advantage of our regular registration rate please click here; to register click here; and to secure your hotel reservation click here. If you are unable to attend and would like to stop receiving emails regarding the 2018 CII Summer Meeting please click No to decline this invitation. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Montague Demment
Vice President International Initiatives
APLU